

WORLD TOWN PLANNING DAY

MONDAY - 9 NOVEMBER 2015

HOUSING REGENERATION STRENGTHENING COMMUNITIES

NEW ZEALAND PLANNING INSTITUTE – AUCKLAND BRANCH EVENT

World Town Planning Day is celebrated each November and recognises and promotes the role of planning in creating liveable communities. Every year the New Zealand Planning Institute (NZPI) celebrates World Town Planning Day with events that feature presenters who are leaders in their respective fields .

The theme for this year's World Town Planning Day is Housing Regeneration: Strengthening Communities.

Auckland Town Hall – Chambers, Level 2 (Entry via Clock Tower Corner Door)
Monday 9 November 2015.

Drinks and canapés from 5.30pm.

RSVP Monday 2 November

Glen Sowry is CEO of Housing New Zealand, whose core role is to provide safe, warm, and dry rental homes for people in the greatest need for as long as required.

It is also New Zealand's largest landlord managing nearly 70,000 rental properties, housing over 200,000 people and has $15.1 billion portfolio, making it the government's second largest asset.

Penny Hulse was selected as the first Deputy Mayor of the newly-formed Auckland Council in 2010. As chair of the Auckland Development and Auckland Plan Committees, Penny has led some of the most important aspects of Auckland Council's programme including successfully leading the challenging Auckland Unitary Plan process.

Penny is working hard along with Auckland Council to address some of the barriers to affordable housing

Lee Beattie is an urban planner with 21 years' professional experience. He has qualifications in urban planning and design, and environmental science. Lee is currently deputy head of the School of Architecture and Planning where he is head of the urban planning programme. He specialises in urban planning policy development and implementation, growth management and urban design research, professional practitioner training and providing Environment Court evidence.