

Compliance Monitoring and Enforcement of the RMA by Local Authorities

A panel discussion

Ministry for the Environment
Manatū Mō Te Taiao

Environmental stewardship
for a prosperous New Zealand
Tiakina te taiao kia tōnui a Aotearoa

Introducing the panellists

Patrick Lynch – Waikato Regional Council

Jakki Handcock – Thames-Coromandel District Council

Marie Brown – Environmental Defence Society

Rachel Ward (MC) – Ministry for the Environment

Ministry for the Environment report

Compliance, monitoring and enforcement by local authorities under the Resource Management Act 1991
NOVEMBER 2016

Ministry for the Environment
Manatū Mo Te Taiao

Question 1

Describe your role
(as it relates to compliance monitoring and enforcement)

Question 2

What do you think compliance, monitoring and enforcement best practice looks like?

Question 3

What do you think of the current state of compliance monitoring and enforcement by your council and other councils?

Question 4

What opportunities are there for improving compliance monitoring and enforcement?

Questions from the audience

Ministry for the

Environment

Manatū Mō Te Taiao

Environmental stewardship
for a prosperous New Zealand
Tiakina te taiao kia tōnui a Aotearoa