

Senior Planner - Consents

Are you a professional planner looking to take the next step in your career? Whakatane District Council is looking for an experienced planner to lead our professional, customer-focused planning consents team. If you are a solutions-focused leader, with a desire for progress and the ability to work across multi-disciplinary teams, then this role is for you.

Working closely with the Principal Planner, the Senior Planner - Consents will oversee the delivery of Council's planning consents services, including providing advice and expertise to others, and taking a lead on more complex and challenging consent applications.

A relevant tertiary qualification, proven experience in resource management and project planning, excellent communication skills and the ability to build strong working relationships are all key requirements for this full-time, permanent role.

This is a great opportunity to build your career in a superb lifestyle location.

You will need:

- A degree in Planning or Resource Management
- Recent relevant experience as a consents planner
- Strong time management skills and sound research methodologies
- Clear and concise communication skills; both written and verbal
- A positive "can-do" attitude
- Ability to motivate, lead and co-ordinate a multi-disciplinary team.

Working for the Whakatane District Council means being part of a motivated, professional and customer-focused team in one of New Zealand's sunniest locations. You will be working with enthusiastic and talented people who like to have fun and make a difference to the community we serve.
