

Reserves Planner

Are you passionate about recreation and open space and ready for a new challenge? Do you want to use your reserves planning experience to contribute to delivering great outcomes for the New Plymouth district? If so, get in touch with us.

New Plymouth District Council (NPDC) is looking for an action orientated Parks Reserves Planner in a full-time permanent position to join our District Planning team.

This role involves reserves, facilities and open space related policy, strategy and planning work. If you have policy and strategy development experience and know the Reserves Act inside out and can work with the Resource Management Act, then we want to hear from you! This role will provide an opportunity for you to develop new skills and work on a variety of challenging and interesting projects, alongside an integrated team of planning professionals.

At the New Plymouth District Council we aim to create and sustain a truly rewarding workplace environment for our staff. We have also put together an integrated Total Rewards Framework that spans Wellbeing, Development, Benefits, Culture and Recognition. The NPDC Total Rewards Framework provides a diverse range of opportunities and benefits for our staff.

Applications close on Friday, 7 December 2018.
