

Principal Planner - Environmental Policy

- Competitive salary, relocation assistance and benefits
- Flexible working options
- Ongoing professional development

Making great communities takes great people - will you be one of them?

This is a perfect opportunity for someone with proven strengths and skills in Environmental Policy and statutory resource management to join our Environmental Policy team. This is a full time role based in Richmond.

We are a Unitary Authority which means we offer the benefit of variety to our Environmental Policy team. The team has a diverse programme of policy portfolios that span our urban and rural areas.

As a seasoned policy professional you'll be able to see the 'bigger picture', be a great communicator and mentor, be experienced in all phases of policy lifecycle, and have a sound understanding of the RMA and local authority responsibilities and functions. Another key part of the role is to lead a number of policy related projects such as the upcoming review of our Regional Policy Statement.

At Tasman District Council, our love for our region inspires us as we constantly strive to make it an even better place for our communities. A role at Council isn't just a job, it's an opportunity to make things happen in the district you're dedicated to. Join our team, and be inspired by the people you work with and the results and successes we share together.

In return, we offer ongoing professional development and a variety of challenging and interesting work. We also offer a competitive salary range of $86,394 - $101,640, relocation assistance, flexible working options and a benefits package to suit your personal preferences.
