

PALMERSTON NORTH CITY COUNCIL

Planner

We're on the hunt for a professional and highly motivated Planner to join our Strategy & Planning Unit of the Palmerston North City Council.

You'll be working in a tight-knit team, providing professional environmental policy and planning advice to the Council, assisting in the review of our District Plan, and contributing to the implementation of urban design, placemaking and heritage planning initiatives.

Palmerston North is growing, and it's our job to proactively plan for that growth and address the big strategic planning issues. You'll need to bring with you sound research skills, an open mind, and a commitment to professional development.

You'll also need:

- A sound understanding of the RMA as it applies to local authorities
- Flexibility to undertake work on a wide range of planning issues
- A relevant tertiary qualification
- At least 2 years' experience is desirable

This role would also suit a graduate who has ambitions to make a difference in their local community.

Applications close: 11.00 pm, Monday 18 March 2019

We are an Equal Employment Opportunity Employer and welcome applications from all those suitably qualified for this position.
