

Resource Management Planner – 12 month contract

Queenstown

Brown & Company Planning Group Ltd is a resource management planning consultancy, offering quality advice and service to clients involved in a wide variety of urban settlement, tourism, resort, recreational and adventure projects.

We are seeking a suitably qualified resource management planner with at least 2 years' experience, for a full or part time position. The role will be wide-ranging, with the opportunity to progress and gain experience under the mentorship of experienced consultant planners.

The successful applicant will be required to produce high quality consent and policy documentation for a range of innovative developers, tourism operators and local bodies, and liaison with consent authorities in Queenstown, Auckland and throughout New Zealand.

Excellent verbal and written communication skills, self-motivation and the ability to manage time effectively are vital for the role and you will have a reasonable level of autonomy. The role is based in central Queenstown and offers a degree of flexibility to allow you to engage in all the region has to offer.

We support and encourage NZPI membership. The contract is for 12 months but may be extended.

Applicants must be a New Zealand resident or have a valid working visa.
