About the role:

The role relates to the Resource Management Act (RMA) planning side of the business, with a focus on the delivery of technical planning work, and, depending on the applicant, business development. Based in Queenstown, the role will require you to develop key relationships with internal and external stakeholders in the building of this team across Queenstown and surrounding districts, particularly Wanaka.

Key Responsibilities:

- Provide RMA Planning services to clients
- Notices of requirement / designations
- Resource consents
- Plan changes and submissions
- Extend the planning clients and projects in the district.

Key Requirements:

- Extensive knowledge of the Resource Management Act
- Outstanding written and communication skills
- Integral understanding of relationship building and business development.

This opportunity would suit someone who can confidently get underway, has great technical knowledge and is looking for a role with relative autonomy and flexibility, but also the determination to improve. Enjoy working from Queenstown and the benefits and proximity it has to offer with nearby towns and join a rewarding company culture.
