Please note, we like to consider applications as they are received, so encourage you to get in touch with us soon.

We are currently seeking expressions of interest from experienced and talented Urban Designers at intermediate and senior levels of their careers to join our teams based in Auckland, Wellington and Queenstown. We are looking for people that can work across the scale, from city or regional spatial plans to site design, on a range of exciting projects.

We are seeking candidates who have:

- At least five years' (intermediate roles) or at least ten years' (senior roles) professional experience in urban design and related fields, preferably in a consultancy environment with a mix of NZ and International experience.
- A Masters' degree in Urban Design and an undergraduate qualification and background in architecture, landscape architecture or planning.
- A portfolio of project experience that demonstrates creativity, a critical eye and the ability to problem solve and actively contribute ideas within a collaborative team.
- A genuine interest and capability to work with a wide range of communities and their stakeholders. An understanding of government influences at all levels would also be beneficial.
- Excellent interpersonal skills, including being an effective and confident communicator to a broad audience and in a range of settings.
- Skilled graphic and written capability, ability to use a broad range of digital tools and techniques – AutoCAD, Sketchup, Adobe Creative Suite, GIS
- Proven that they are highly motivated to develop and maintain enduring client relationships, and can demonstrate that they have an understanding of the role of both the public and private sectors in contributing to good urban design outcomes.
- Professional registration within one or more core urban design disciplines.

We provide a supportive, collaborative and respectful working environment, and value having an inclusive and diverse workplace. We offer ongoing opportunities for professional and personal development for our team members.

Boffa Miskell is a leading New Zealand professional services consultancy. We're employee-owned and have been in business for 45 years.
