

RMA Lead Planner, Manukau

About the Business

Thomas Consultants is a growing multi-disciplinary company that offers planning, engineering, survey, environmental and related services on a range of resource management projects across the Auckland region. We are looking for a forward thinking, experienced Senior/Principal Planner to help lead and develop our planning team in Manukau, with a view to becoming a Team Leader within the next 12 months.

Our reputation with local and central government and private industry means you will have a variety of private and public projects to work on across a range of client areas in Auckland. We opened our Manukau office due to current demand and invite you to be part of something that is growing and to help shape its future.

What you Bring to the Role

Your great people skills enable you to work successfully with diverse clients and collaboratively with colleagues. You enjoy a team culture interacting together with specialists from other disciplines to see projects succeed. Building the reputation of the company in the wider marketplace through great service is important to you.

What we offer

The position presents an excellent opportunity to move your planning career forward into people leadership and management, while also allowing you to sharpen your technical planning skills and experience on a variety of interesting projects. It also offers you the potential to shape the team you are working in as a leader.

We offer work/life balance, competitive remuneration and the ability to enjoy a daily commute outside the city centre. We have strong company values which extend to our clients and our staff and provide an excellent work culture. For the right candidate we are willing to discuss flexible working arrangements.

Skills and Experience

We are looking for an individual with at least 5 years experience (including a minimum of 2 years in the private sector) and who has managed high profile, complex projects with a good track record. Experience with hearings is expected, and Environment Court experience would also be beneficial. A full NZPI membership, or commitment to pursuing full membership, is preferred.

A key attribute for this position will be an interest in leading, managing and growing a team, noting that the position is likely to grow into a team leader role within 12 months. In addition, as our workload is dynamic and challenging, the best candidate will have enthusiasm and drive to make a reputation for the company in the market.

If you are looking to move your planning career forward into people leadership, in a position where your experience and opinions can help shape the direction of an exciting, growing team, then this is the opportunity for you.

You must have the right to live and work in NZ to apply for this job.
