

Resource and Environmental Management Consultants

INTERMEDIATE /SENIOR PLANNING CONSULTANT

WELLINGTON

Who we're after

We are looking for a new planning consultant to join our Wellington Practice.

We want to add a well-organised, positive and energetic professional to our team, with an eye for not only the detail but also the big picture. You'll be working on a wide range of policy, development and statutory planning projects, so broad expertise in planning and resource management will be a key attribute.

We want a good oral and written communicator and a team player who can both lead discrete projects and support other consultants in our practice. Your ability to manage dynamic workloads and projects, and to build client relationships, will also be important.

Ideally, applicants will have relevant tertiary qualifications in resource management planning or related disciplines and 5+ years' professional experience in New Zealand resource management planning, policy development and/or consenting.

Who we are

RMG is a renowned firm of planning practitioners with offices in Wellington and Christchurch. You'll be joining a tight team that provides consultancy services to public and private sector clients across the country, with a large focus on the lower north and upper south islands.

Our Directors and staff have extensive experience in planning and resource management gained from central government, local authority and consultancy backgrounds. RMG is client-focused, with a key company objective being to assist clients through resource management processes in the most cost effective and time efficient manner. We pride ourselves on providing the best possible advice to our clients so they can make informed decisions in advancing their projects.

We try to foster a positive social culture within our organisation, and encourage our staff to continue their own professional development. We also strive to ensure our staff achieve a good work-life balance with an emphasis on sporting and cultural pursuits.
