

Ki te Kāpuia, e Kore e Whati: Collaborative Planning with Waikato-Tainui

Introduction

- Waikato-Tainui
- Engagement through Partnerships
- Tangata whenua working groups
- Maori and indigenous planning principles

History

Vision

Strategy

- Ngaa Tikanga o Te Kiingitanga – Principles of the Kiingitanga
- Whakatupuranga 2050 – Vision & Mission
- Waikato-Tainui Environmental Plan – Tai Tumu, Tai Pari, Tai Ao

Governance

Tainui Group Holdings

Ruakura Inland Port

RMA Context

- Private Plan Change / Board of Inquiry
- Public Plan Change / Appeals
- Multiple resource consents
- Design & Implementation
  - Mana whenua key stakeholders in design process
  - Waikato-Tainui Environmental Plan objectives as key design driver

Engagement

Partnerships

- Vision and Strategy as road map
- Inform, involve and empower
- Encourage ownership
- Authentic and genuine connections
- Face to face investment
- Early and regular interface
- Ups and downs
- Collaboration is more than a word
- Trust takes time
- Succession planning and growth of mana whenua through corporate partnership

Tangata Whenua Working Groups

- Mana Whakahaere
- Education mirror – mutual learning
- Powerful resource, creative outlet
- Right people, right place
- Patience is a virtue
- Inter-generational lens
- Leverage in support
- Genuine outcomes not concessions
- Keep the rhythm

Maori & Indigenous Planning

- Te Aranga Principles are just a reference point
- Mana whenua must define the core values for the place
- Understand the history, but also variations of history
- More than a koru, and not just a pou - go deep, be brave
- Restore the mauri
- Water sensitive design
- Co-design wananga
- Nga Aho

Questions

