

BENTLEY & Co

Two Positions: Planner, Auckland

Bentley & Co. are recruiting two motivated planners to work in our team on a broad range of projects nationwide.

Established in 1981, Bentley & Co. is a niche resource management consultancy located on High Street in the CBD. We have built our reputation on strategic thinking; providing services to a wide range of private and public-sector clients, New Zealand-wide. We are leaders in the profession and are looking for someone who wants the opportunity to challenge themselves and progress their career with the benefit of a small, dedicated, experienced team.

Our work is varied and wide-ranging, and includes a broad spectrum of residential, retirement, retail, commercial, healthcare and port infrastructure, together with plan changes and advice to inform due diligence and land valuations.

The role will suit a planner with one to three years of relevant experience and involves:

- Assisting senior members of staff with planning due diligence; the preparation of resource consent applications and plan change documentation.
- Research on Plan provisions New Zealand-wide.
- The preparation of and reporting on resource consent applications.

Applicants should have:

- A planning degree recognised by the New Zealand Planning Institute.
- Excellent written and oral communication skills.
- The ability to work unsupervised in a collegial environment.

We offer a range of benefits including the payment of professional fees and CPD opportunities, and recompense of mobile telephone and remote accessibility.

Remuneration will be discussed with the ideal candidate and will be reflective of qualifications, experience and ability.

If you think you have what it takes, contact Craig McGarr, Mark Arbuthnot or Anthony Blomfield on (09) 309 5367 for further information.

