

Junior/Intermediate Planner

Wellington Te Whanga-nui-a-Tara

Are you a passionate RMA Planner who wants to be part of shaping the future of Wellington and wider New Zealand?

We have an opportunity for an enthusiastic and talented Planner to join our multi-disciplinary team in Wellington. Overlooking the waterfront, our Wellington office is located centrally downtown, close to the harbour and all the amenities of a vibrant city centre. You will be joining a team of six experienced planners who work closely with urban designers, ecologists, biosecurity specialists, cultural advisors, landscape planners and landscape designers on a broad range of projects.

We are a leading New Zealand professional services consultancy that is focused on better outcomes for our environment. We are entirely employee-owned and growing, with an increasingly diverse portfolio of clients and projects.

You'll be working with passionate people who excel at what they do and enjoy working with each other. We offer a supportive, flexible and collaborative working environment. We value having an inclusive and diverse workplace, and offer ongoing opportunities for professional and personal development to ensure that our people can excel and grow.

In joining our planning team, you will work in all aspects of planning, from consenting small and large projects, helping our clients shape RMA and environmental policy, and taking on a variety of environmental and urban research and strategic work. You'll deepen your professional experience and personal progression through this interesting and diverse work.
