

Future of Planning

Te Whaihanga

To better prepare built environment professionals
to work and engage with Māori

Ako Aotearoa National Project

Presented by

DORY REEVES

Consultant, Reeves and Associates

LENA HENRY

Lecturer, University of Auckland

PENNY PIRRIT

Director Urban Growth and Housing,
Auckland Council

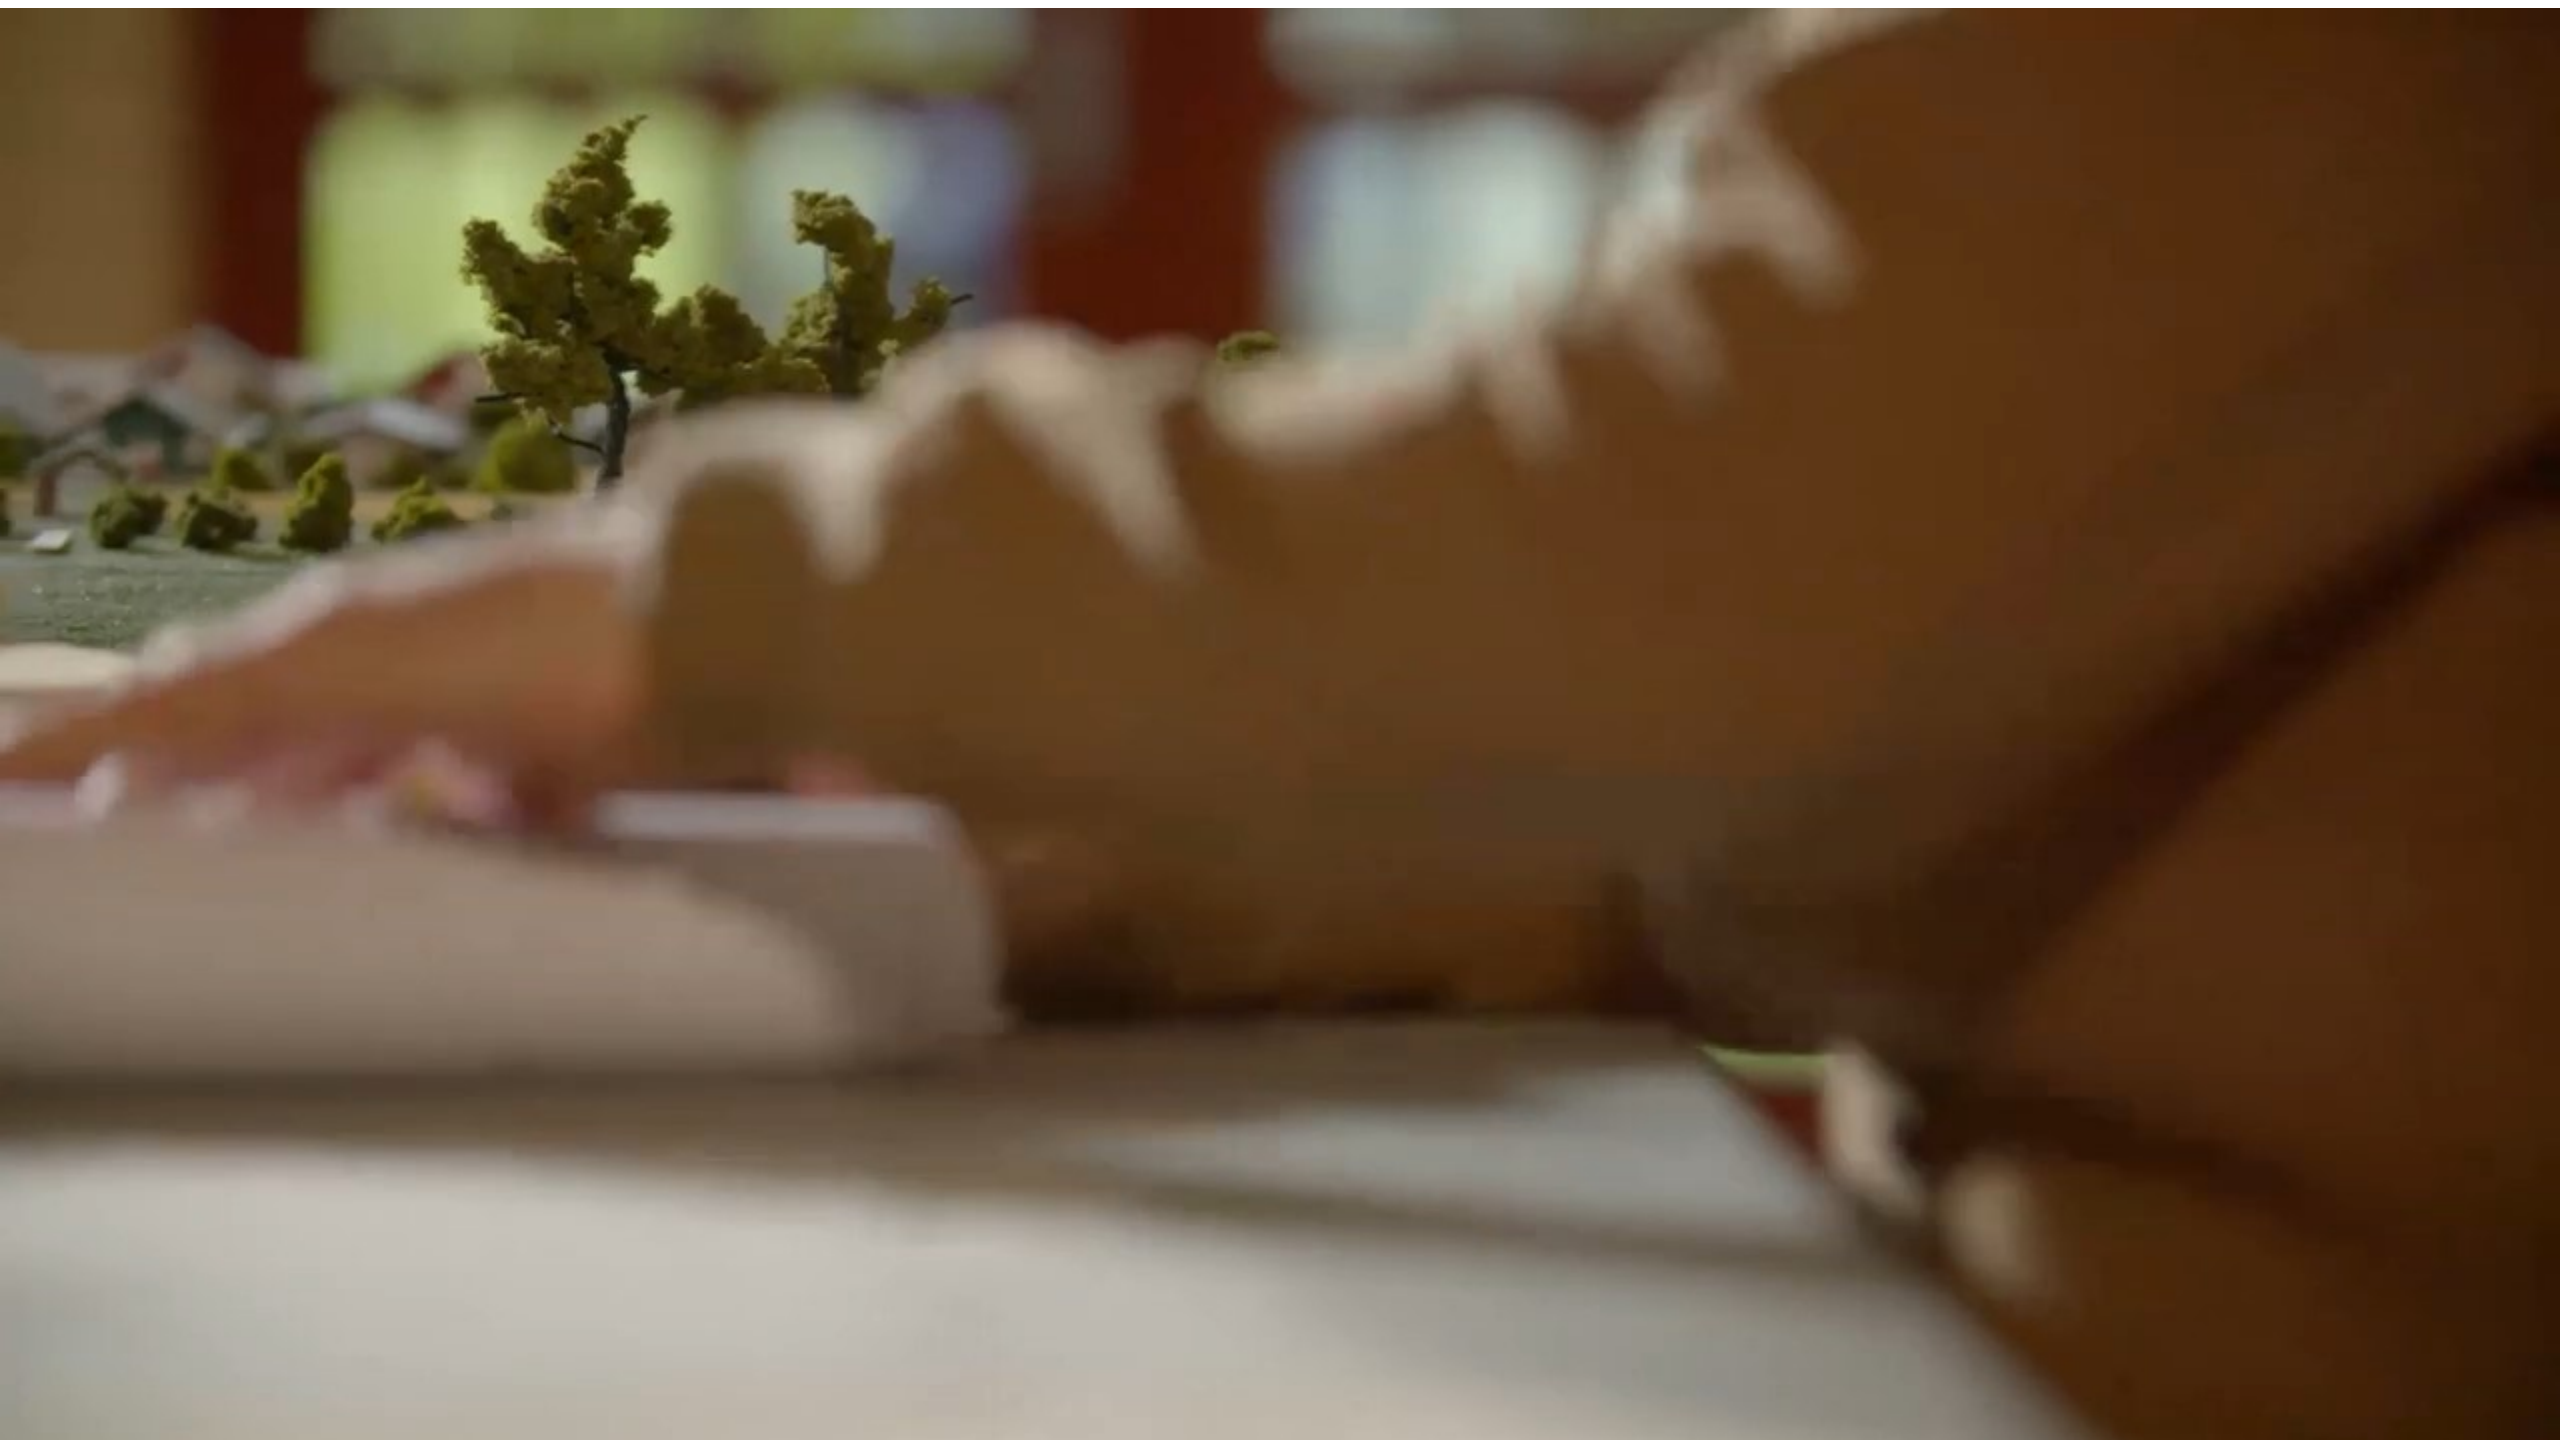

HELEN TE HIRA

Principal Advisor, Auckland Council

Link to resources

<http://bit.ly/tewhaihanga>

Key Tertiary and Industry Partners

Ngā Mana Whenua o Tāmaki Makaurau

Ngāti Wai

Ngāti Manuhiri

Ngāti Rehua Ngāti Wai ki

Aotea

Te Uri o Hau

Ngāti Whātua o Kaipara

Te Patukirikiri

Ngāti Tamaterā

Ngāti Whātua Orakei

Te Kawerau ā Maki

Ngāti Tamaono

Te Ākitai Waiohū

Ngāi Tai ki Tāmaki

Te Ahiwaru Waiohū

Waikato- Tainui

Ngāti Paoa

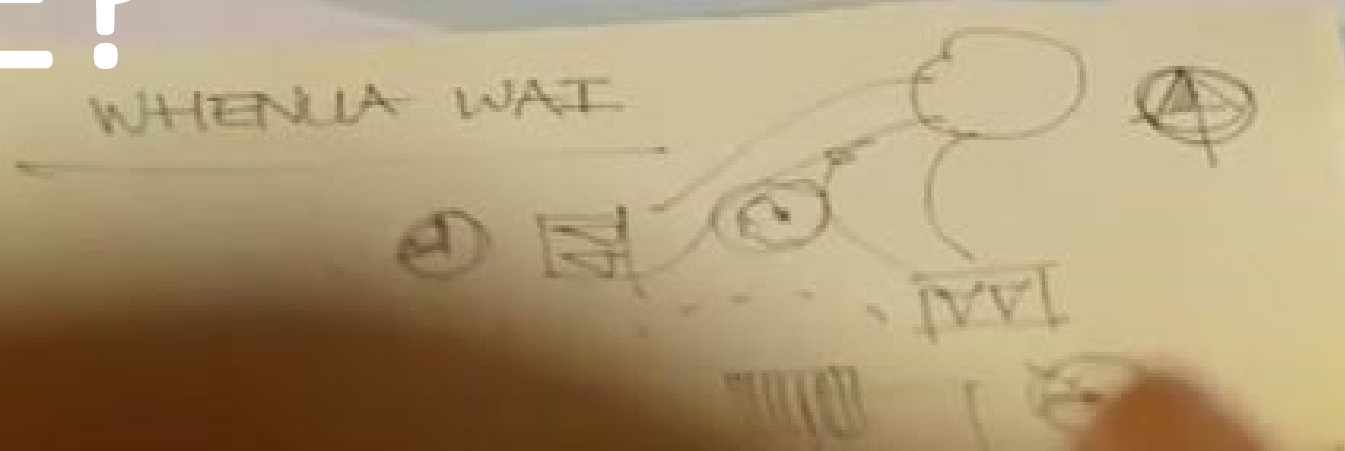

Ngāti Maru

WHY ?

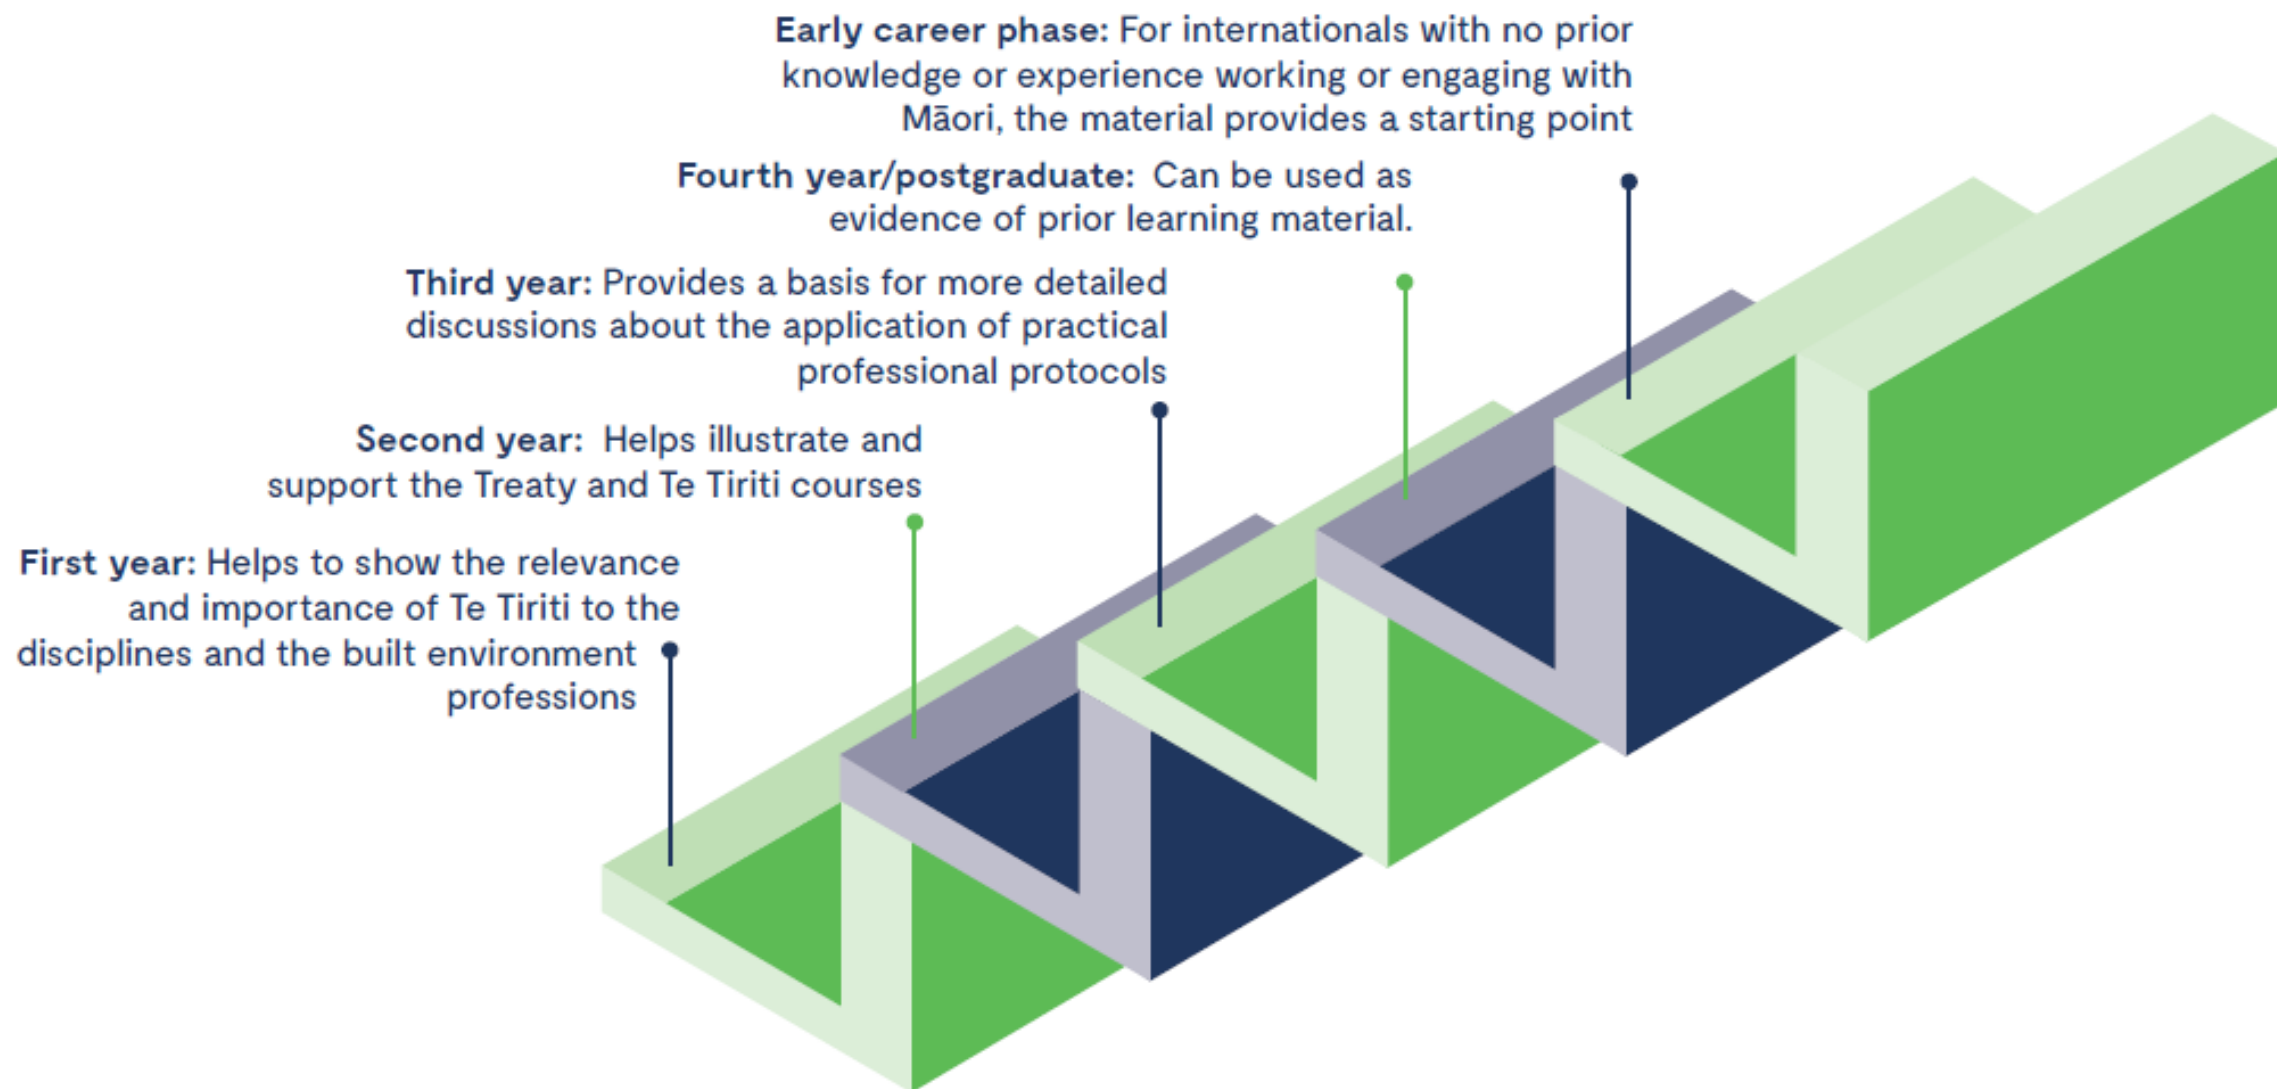

WHAT?

HOW ?

WHERE?

The application of Te Whaihanga at different stages

Where next ?

“The ambitious aim of Te Whaihanga is to bring about sustainable long-term change in the way built environment professionals are taught”

Tangata i akona ki te kāinga, tūngia ki te marae, tau ana

A person trained at home will stand on the marae centred with dignity

For further information or details on courses

Dory Reeves: dory.reeves@xtra.co.nz

Lena Henry: l.henry@Auckland.ac.nz