

Environment Court – Environment Commissioner – Auckland

The Attorney-General is seeking expressions of interest from suitably qualified persons for appointment as an Environment Commissioner based in Auckland.

The Environment Court is a specialist Court with jurisdiction over environmental and resource management matters.

For this appointment, skills in planning are important to the Court at this time. You will also bring familiarity with the Resource Management Act and strong mediation experience. Importantly, you will possess excellent communication skills, mental agility and self confidence.

An application pack for the position may be obtained from the Ministry of Justice website <http://justice.govt.nz/about/statutory-vacancies>

Applications close at 5pm on Friday 20 September 2019.