

Team Leader – Environmental Policy

We are seeking a talented individual to join our high performing and innovative Environmental Policy Department.

We have:

- complex natural resource problems that need your intelligence and enthusiasm to solve
- collaborative and supportive culture
- work life balance – flexible working hours
- an open mind for new ideas and methodologies – we push the boundaries of what is possible
- a relationship driven approach that achieves the best for our communities.

You have:

- deep knowledge of resource management policy in New Zealand and will thrive in the challenge of this complex space
- a passion and commitment to excellent leadership with proven people management skills, and a high degree of emotional intelligence
- great interpersonal skills that allow you to build constructive relationships
- strategic thinking and are able to work to a vision
- an understanding of where to focus the team's efforts, and how to play to the team member's strengths
- respect for our Māori communities and understand their tikanga.

This is a rare and influential role. If you believe you are the right person, we'd love to hear from you.

To apply please view the job description and apply with a cover letter and CV via the link below.

For further information on these roles please contact the Environmental Policy Department manager, Matt Hickman, on 04 830 4320.

Applications close: 14 February 2020