

Resource Management Planner - Nelson

Eliot Sinclair is a privately owned surveying, engineering and planning consultancy based in the South Island focused on shaping a better tomorrow. Established in 1932, we have earned a reputation as a trusted partner capable of delivering a diverse range of services to clients in both the private and public sectors.

Our team is very proud of who we are and willing to give our all to each other and therefore our clients. This loyalty and strong work ethic ensures anything we do is delivered competently and professionally. At Eliot Sinclair we strive for success, take pride in our achievements and are passionate about what we do and the industry we work in.

Our staff are known for their expertise, depth of knowledge and use of innovative technology. We are constantly working together, creating a vibrant and dynamic work environment where there are always opportunities to learn.

The Role

We are working in alliance with a land development consultancy in Nelson and are looking for a Resource Management Planner to join their small, successful team and become responsible for a range of land development related planning projects.

This exciting opportunity will suit anyone who is able to work independently and has the drive to take the next step in their career and get involved in business development to grow the planning team and the work the consultancy is involved in.

The position involves a variety of work including providing advice to our clients, assessments and submissions of resource consents, assessment of environmental effects, notice of requirements and outline plans and processing of consent applications.

Skills and Experience

To be successful in this role, you will have:

- Tertiary qualifications in planning, resource management or related discipline;
- At least five years of related New Zealand experience;
- Ability to work independently and getting involved in business development;
- Good knowledge and experience with relevant legislation,
- Excellent communication, presentation and report writing skills,

We will look after you by providing an attractive salary package and a great work environment.

Application Process

If you have any questions about the vacancy, contact Tereza Tutko on hr@eliotsinclair.co.nz or phone +64 3 379 4014.