

JOB VACANCY: INTERMEDIATE PLANNER (FLEXIBLE TERMS AVAILABLE)

Planning Focus is a boutique planning and resource management practice working on varied and exciting development projects.

Since establishing in 1998, we have built-up an impressive and stable base of clients, including publicly-listed, corporate and private companies, and higher net-worth individuals, many of whom are the driving force behind projects shaping the future of Auckland (and elsewhere).

We provide the full spectrum of strategic and statutory planning services; including pre-purchase due diligence advice, development and consent management, master-planning, consenting, and the preparation of plan changes. We pride ourselves on our ability to provide high quality and timely advice, and our reputation is founded on results.

We currently have an opportunity for an Intermediate Planner to join our Queen Street studio on a fixed term or permanent basis working part-time or full-time. Applicants must have at least two years planning experience working in New Zealand and be self-motivated with great written and verbal communication skills and the ability to build strong professional relationships. We offer a high-energy workplace, top rewards and the opportunity for you to grow as a planning professional. You will be involved in guiding projects from conception through to approval.

Applications for this position close on 15 February 2021. Should you wish to discuss matters further you are welcome to contact one of the three partners at Planning Focus; Alistair White, Paul Arnesen or Alex van Son. All enquiries and applications will be treated in confidence.
