

ALL INVESTED IN THE FUTURE

The Power of Commitment - that's what we offer. Our commitment defines our business - for our employees and for our clients. For the last 25+ years GHD New Zealand has worked with our clients to create lasting community benefit and we're committed to continuing to ensure that water, energy and urbanisation are made sustainable for generations to come.

With a large program of infrastructure projects on the horizon, we are looking for passionate Planners to join our National Planning Team. You'll be joining our National Planning Team working with 30 Planners across the country who are committed to delivering great outcomes for our clients and communities within New Zealand across all our offices, from the top of Te Ika a Maui to the bottom of Te Wai Pounamu.

Positions include but are not limited to; Technical Director - Planning – Tauranga, Intermediate Planner – Wellington, Auckland, Hamilton and Tauranga, Senior Environmental Planner – Auckland, and Senior/Intermediate Planner- Christchurch.

You will

- Contribute as part of a dynamic team that works nationally and locally
- Work on a range of planning and policy work that brings together many technical disciplines and business sectors
- A fantastic team culture with a focus on working collaboratively in an environment which supports growth and innovation
- Opportunities for career development, e.g. mentoring/preparing you for full membership of NZPI, project management and business development

You'll have

- A commitment to delivering great planning outcomes for clients in the public and private sector
- A Track record of delivering an exceptional client experience to local clients
- A comprehensive understanding of the NZ planning system and relevant legislation
- The ability to coordinate resources and ensure project outcomes and client expectations are met
- The ability to be client facing, with an eye for business development opportunities
- Business development including pre-positioning, preparation of competitive proposals and client management
- Enthusiasm to work collaboratively with other technical disciplines on multi-disciplinary infrastructure projects
- A relevant Planning qualification (a Bachelor or Masters of Planning, or similar). A New Zealand Planning Institute-recognised qualification is preferred
- Full membership of the NZPI (or working towards this)

Why GHD?

Being the best we can be is in our culture.

We are a family of smart, innovative and creative problem solvers. In our employee-owned company, everything feels like it matters more. Challenge us and help us come up with new solutions to ensure water, energy and urbanisation are made sustainable for generations to come.
