

Incite Christchurch – Planner (Consents)

Our Christchurch office, based in Kaiapoi, has a great opportunity for an experienced consents planner looking to take the next step in their career. We are looking for someone who can hit the ground running, working alongside our senior consents planners in assisting with processing regional resource consents for our existing clients throughout the South Island. The role will be varied and include processing a broad range of consents for different regional councils.

The ideal candidate will:

- have a Bachelor's or Master's degree in planning or related resource management field
- have a minimum of 2 years planning experience, preferably with regional consenting experience
- have excellent plain-English writing and editing ability
- be a confident communicator with good interpersonal skills
- be able to self-manage while working across multiple projects
- have a “can-do” attitude and good sense of humour
- be able to maintain good working relationships with clients

About Incite

We offer:

- flexibility and a good work-life balance
- a variety of consenting work
- career development with active mentoring and ongoing professional training
- a generous salary
- a friendly, flexible and focused work environment

Incite is a specialist resource management planning consultancy with offices in Auckland, Wellington and Christchurch. Our Christchurch office has a particular focus on undertaking a range of policy and consenting work for various local authorities, while also undertaking work for nationwide infrastructure providers, private sector developers and central government agencies. Working collaboratively with clients and other professionals, we pride ourselves on being experts in our field and providing exceptional service.

Please email Leanne Whittington for a copy of the application form or any other information (leanne@incite.co.nz). All discussions will be strictly confidential. Applications close 1st March.