

Senior Planner Required

Eden Terrace, Full Time, Resource Consent Planning

Join our growing Planning & Subdivision team

Due to the growth of our company, Ashcroft Homes require an experienced Planner to assist our growing Planning & Subdivision Management division. In this role you'll be responsible for providing expert technical advice to our planning, construction, sales and subdivision teams, securing resource consents for clients. You will be able to utilise your planning skills and your understanding of the RMA, Auckland Unitary Plan, its amendments, appeals and associated legislation, in a fantastic team working with great people. We are looking for experienced Planners to join our growing team of in-house specialists. There are also opportunities to be involved in subdivisions project management for the right candidate.

Does this sound like you?

- Minimum of 4 years experience as a planner specialising in resource consents
- A tertiary qualification in Resource and Environmental Planning
- Sound communication and relationship management skills
- Good knowledge of the relevant Acts, legislation and practices
- Excellent organisational ability and good analytical skills
- Effective time management with the ability to multi-task to achieve deadlines
- Dedication to providing excellent customer service

What we can offer you:

- Support towards professional development
- Career progression within a growing team of professionals
- Access to a wide range of interesting and complex projects (small to large scale projects), including assisting in the project management of subdivisions
- A genuinely welcoming, fun and social team and working environment
- Open plan, refurbished offices in Eden Terrace
- Must be eligible to work in New Zealand

This is an amazing opportunity to join a busy, growing, housing development company which will accelerate your planning skills & knowledge, and put you at the centre of a rapidly growing residential construction industry.

Please email your CV and a covering letter to sophie@ashcrofthomes.co.nz. Applications close 19 April 2021.
